

LOCAL NEWS.

RUNNING CARS THROUGH STREETS.—AN INJUNCTION.—The Washington Chronicle, of this morning, says: Justice Walter, one of the police magistrates of this District, issued the following order, which was handed to the authorities of the Orange and Alexandria Railroad Company by a police officer:

To the Orange & Alexandria R. R. Co.:
Being fully satisfied of the insecurity of the lives and health of the public by running steam engines through the public streets of the city of Washington, in the District of Columbia, I hereby command you, and all who may be concerned running such engines through said city, to stop it, after the reception of this notice, otherwise all parties violating this order will be dealt with according to the act of Congress entitled "An act to amend an act entitled 'An act to create a Metropolitan Police,'" approved August 6, 1861.

(Signed) CHAS. WALTER, J. P.
Justice Walter issued the order by the authority of an act of Congress, giving power for such proceeding in cases where "an act is about to be committed prejudicial to the lives or health of the public."

Justice Walter has also instructed the officers that after the notice shall have been served on the company, and they continue to run their locomotives through the street, it will be the duty of the officers and they must arrest, and bring before him all persons who are employed on such train under the railroad company.

CIRCUIT COURT.—Friday.—The Commonwealth's Attorney declined further to prosecute on behalf of the Commonwealth against R. M. McClure, who stood indicted for keeping a house of ill fame.

Boyd vs. Work.—case att. —continued till the next term.

Letters of administration on the estate of Asa O. Gallup were granted to Wealthy P. Gallup and Ludwig O. Gallup. Calvin Camp—Camp and George Tucker were appointed to appraise the said estate.

The chancery docket was called and several cases set for hearing and others continued.

To-day the Court has been occupied in trying the case of the Com. vs. Thompson—on a charge of larceny.

ROBBERIES are becoming rife in this city—almost every morning we hear of house breaking. Four houses in the First Ward, south of the Tunnel, those of Mrs. Thompson, Niel Phillips, John Cogswell and Mrs. McCracklin, were entered last night, ransacked, and robbed of furniture, clothing, &c. From Mrs. Thompson's house, in addition to other articles, the robbers took a large clock. A basket of clothing was left on the pavement in front of Niel Phillip's house. An attempt to break into the house of Mr. George Struder was made, but from some cause was not successful. We learn that the houses of Captain Hammond and Mr. Beach, near Battery Rodgers, were robbed on Thursday night. Capt. Hammond's house was despoiled of a quantity of unfinished clothing, &c., probably to the amount of $200.

POLICE REPORT.—MAGISTRATES' OFFICE.—Henry Stewart, a negro, for striking his father, Wm. Stewart, over the head with a hatchet and seriously injuring him, was arrested this morning by officer Jenkins, and committed to jail to await a trial by the Court. Minor Henderson, for assisting in the assault on Mr. Stephen Milburn last Wednesday night, was sent to jail for a further examination.

MAYOR'S OFFICE.—Patrick Learey, for disorderly conduct, was fined and discharged. Sallie Pratt, a negro woman, for selling liquor without a license, was fined and discharged.

We were misinformed yesterday afternoon as to a reported telegraphic dispatch from Secretary Stanton, directing the books of the O. & A. R. R. to be given up to Mr. Barbour. The dispatch was from Gen. Augur to the Provost Marshal directing the return of the books "to the owners," and it is now said, the books have been placed in the possession of Mr. Quigley.

Company A, 4th U. S. artillery, has been relieved from duty in the Defences, and is ordered to Fort Washington, Maryland. Company C, of the same regiment, is assigned to duty at Fort Whipple, Virginia.

The Post Office, at the Plains, Fauquier county, Va., has been re-established, and Wm. P. Taylor appointed postmaster, vice A. Jennings.

THE MARKET this morning, was well supplied, but there were hardly any changes in prices to be noticed; except that a considerable quantity of meat from the country was brought in, and that the farmers sold the beef at 12½ cts. per lb., and pork at 20 cts. per lb. Butter 50 to 60 cts. per lb., according to quality. Vegetables as before. Fresh fish kept up at high prices. Wild Turkeys sold at from $1.75 to $2 a piece. There was rather a tendency to a decline in prices, to day, though no lower quotations can be given.

The Washington Star says:—"We hear it very positively stated that the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company have decided not to come direct to Washington or Georgetown in laying down the branch railroad from the Point of Rocks, but propose to make a connection with the Washington branch at either Bladensburg or Laurel. This will be disagreeable news to the people of the District who had been hoping for a direct line from the Point of Rocks here, whereby Washington would be brought some forty miles nearer the West and Northwest than it is at present; and this distance much further shortens the completion of the Connellsville Railroad, connecting it with the Pittsburg and the entire West and Northwest through Pittsburg."

Geo. C. Wedderburn, esq., formerly one of the editors and proprietors of the Richmond Bulletin, has associated himself with P. B. Hooe, esq.; and the new firm will conduct a business in this city, as successors of the long established and extensively known house of Fowle & Co.

The condition of Jas. Burnett, the man who was stabbed at the Western House, on Thursday night, is, we are informed by Dr. French, better than could have been expected from the nature of his wound.

The Provost Marshal of this city, who returned the book of the company to Mr. Quigley, went to Washington this morning for the purpose of determining from Gen. Augur, whether he had acted properly or not. He will state the result of his enquiry this evening.

We are under obligations to the polite and efficient operator of the U. S. Telegraph in this city, for frequent acts of kindness. The office is at the Marshall House, where business is dispatched with great accuracy and precision.

It is stated that the State Directors of the Orange and Alexandria Railroad, will, probably, be, John Minor Botts, of Culpeper, Alex. Rives, of Albemarle, and John G. Meem, of Lynchburg.

In our notice of the banner presentation to the Sons of Temperance, yesterday, Miss King's name should have been Miss Kirk.

A communication from W. G. Cazenove, esq., has been received too late for insertion in to-day's issue.
